Citing Web Materials

Document available on a website (New: include publisher after title)

In References:

In text (paraphrase): (Barber, 2004)
In text (quote): (Barber, 2004, para. 4)

Website no author (use publisher of website)

Electronic multimedia: Youtube, photo, podcast, video

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=guRoWTYfxMs

Electronic copy of a journal article, retrieved from a database

In References:

In text (paraphrase): (Bertagnoli, 2004)
In text (quote): (Bertagnoli, 2004, p. 25)

Journal article with DOI or URL

https://doi.org/10.1037/0345/0278-6133.24.226

Online Newspaper article

In References:

In text (paraphrase): (Hilts, 1999)
In text (quote): (Hilts, 1999, p. 2)

Online Encyclopedia article - no Author (Include retrieval date)

In References:

In text (paraphrase): (“Coronavirus”, 2020)
In text (quote): (“Coronavirus”, 2020, para. 13)

Citing Books

Book (New: Publisher location no longer required)

In References:

In text (paraphrase): (Robbins & Langton, 2004)
In text (quote): (Robbins & Langton, 2004, p. 56)
Citing Print Journals & Newspapers

Journal article

In References:

In text (paraphrase): (Grescoe, 2004)
In text (quote): (Grescoe, 2004, p. 55)

Journal article—more than twenty authors (first 20 then ... Last Author)

In References:

In text (paraphrase): (Pegion et al., 2019)
In text (quote): (Pegion et al., 2019, pp. 2055-2056)

Newspaper article—no author

In References:

In text (paraphrase): (“New Drug”, 1993)
This is a guide to the most common types of citations.

If you need additional help, there are copies of the official APA Style Manual available in the Resource Centre.

www.apastyle.org for tutorials and help guides